Win at the Showdown Awards

Kalib Lawes and teacher, Mr Paul Clayton won Kaipara College an Award at the Showdown Awards evening which recognizes student theatre achievement in Auckland. Here is a report from Kalib Lawes and Sam Sinnott.

"The night of the AMI Showdown Awards, the School Oscars, was filled with the glitz and glamour of the Oscars minus the limos and free valet parking. With suits and "frocks" and going-out sneakers the night was truly red carpet. The Class Comedians and Mexi-Doug's "Get a Perm" headlined the night and screaming girls burst eardrums everywhere. The words "it's just an honor to be nominated" really were a comfort as the 600 people looking at you glared your prepared speech straight out the back of your head.

Twenty one plays from fourteen schools were nominated. Kaipara was one of the smallest schools there, amongst others like Rangitoto, Kristin, ACG Senior, Diocesan, and Orewa. We were excited about our six nominations. We won the award for lighting design and we had a great evening out and lots of fun. We can't wait for next year!"
