Film Award

"Make a short film", said Youthtown. "Include the line, 'You'll never guess what happened next' and a pair of oversize sunglasses as a prop."

Tamara James and Shaquille Wasasala, Year 13 Media Studies students did just that. "Shadow" examines the capacity of a young mind to induce its own paranoia and fear. Superb cinematography, few lines and only two characters paint the picture in dark tones.

The Youthtown Best Short Film Competition for 2011 result? "Shadow" scripted, produced, directed, filmed and edited by Tamara and Shaquille won;

- Best Film
- Best Cinematography
- Best Script
- Best use of the Prop

And $2,000 voucher from Harvey Norman.

You can see the film on Youtube.

Congratulations!

More Success for Singer

College singer songwriter Hannah Horsfield entered TV1's "Find a Star" competition on the Good Morning programme. She chose to cover the Bob Dylan song "Adele make me feel my Love".

To reach the on screen stage of the competition Hannah had to audition via Youtube. On Tuesday she performed during the show and the audience voted her through to the semi final.

On Sunday she flies to Wellington for a performance on the Monday edition of Good Morning. The combination of audience voting and judges' comments will decide if she progresses to the final.

Costumes Wanted

The Drama Department is preparing for the school show "Revenge of the Amazons." If you or your family have any clothing from the 80s hidden in your wardrobe, please consider donating them!

Seniors Talk About Reading

As part of Parakai School's promotion of reading, Year 13 students Dana Slatter, Mikaela Law, Chris Kelly and Tayla Rees were guests at a school assembly to speak about reading. They spoke enthusiastically about their own reading and described the worlds that reading opened up for each of them.

Operation Christmas Child

Operation Christmas Child is a project that aims to deliver Christmas gift to children overseas who would not otherwise receive a Christmas present.

Kaipara students are invited to buy a small gift and put in the box in the Student Centre. The gifts will be packed up during the week of 19-23 September and sent to a warehouse in Auckland where volunteers will pack them into shoe boxes for transport overseas.
