Theatre Sports

On Tuesday 18 August, the Kaipara College Theatresports team (consisting of William Law as Captain, Helen Chhour, Karlton Laing and James Auger) played their regional match at Kelston Boys High. The atmosphere was cordial, the competition was fierce and all teams played their games to a very high standard.

The judges were very impressed by the outstanding quality of the Kaipara crew's performances and said that judging the competition was going to be tough. They particularly commented on the high quality of physicality (movement), their storytelling capability and their team effort and support.

Drama teacher, Melody Mendonza said, "I was very happy with the judges' feedback. We were pleasantly surprised in our first year of competition in Theatresports that the judges found just minor points for us to improve upon." The results will be declared next week.

Teacher Only Day

Friday 28 August is the day of the senior Ball. Its is also the day on which the PPTA (secondary teachers' union) has called a paid union meeting. This meeting will be held in the afternoon starting at 1 pm.

Given the disruption to the day occasioned by the Ball and the Union meeting the school has to provide time for staff to work on the new National Curriculum in the morning. Therefore I ask parents to keep students home on that Friday. No College buses will run that day. Any students that do attend school will be supervised.

Have you paid?

Last Day Friday, 4 September

Students of Japanese Big Day Out

The Japanese class went on a trip to the Consulate General of Japan and the Auckland Zoo. Students and staff were involved in a Maori and Japanese quiz and had a taste of Chinese and Japanese food at lunchtime.

The Japanese language students have started taking part in the Vocabulary Olympics hosted by Language Perfect and sponsored by the NZALT. The online competition involves more than 20,000 students from around the world competing in vocabulary knowledge. Kaipara is in 13th place in the Katakana Section as at 20 August. The Olympics run through until 30th August. Kia kaha!

The School Ball is Next Week

The College Ball is next Friday. Students going to the Ball travel from the College by bus. No other form of transport is permissible. Students should be at the College about 6.00 pm. The buses will leave as they load. All buses will return to the College. There are no pick ups or drop offs on the way. Ball tickets, $86 including the bus, are now on sale in the school hall at lunch time for those students who have signed Ball agreements.

Senior Art Exhibition Ready to Go

Weeks of hard work for over 25 of our artists goes on display in the Art Café this Friday. About 50 pieces of photography and painting are available for sale.

The exhibition opens at 5pm and is open 10am-2pm Saturday and Sunday this weekend and next.

New Challenge Shield Champions

The Challenge Shield is a competition between form classes in a sport nominated by Head of Phys Ed and Sport Innes Kerr-Taylor. It takes place each term or whenever Innes decides it's due.

This term the sport chosen was Volleyball. All the Year 10 and all the senior classes were involved. Each form class came up with a team and every Thursday there have been knockout games until form classes PF and BS were left. They fought out a final in the gym on Thursday. BS, a team without any of the College champion sports men and women in it, won with superior team work. They served accurately and were dogged in retrieving PF's serves. Their commitment resulted in a straight set win. The team is Zak Broekhuisen, Andrea Gerrard, Braden Cargill, Jerry Cook, Benji Birt & Duke Hemana (absent from the photo).
