Seven Bands Make the Final

Congratulations to the seven bands from Kaipara that made the Regional RockQuest Finals, Formal Friday, 24 Karat, Yearbook Eulogy, Rumblefish, A Lot Like Vegas, Just Poppin' and Millie and Avalon. It was a great night of superb music from our most talented musicians.

Prime Minister Visits

Prime Minister, John Key visited the College this morning. He was hosted by the Student Leaders. Matua Paraone performed the wero before the Whanau Class lead a powhiri at which he was welcomed by Matua Carlin Shaw and Student Leader Kareem Richards.

Head Boy, Jarrod Colbert and Head Girl, Ellie David spoke to the school assembly before Mr Key replied. He spoke of the importance of education in giving students choices over their lives and the importance of dedication to a goal. Mr Key presented New Zealand Baseball representative Sam Way with a contribution towards his trip to the World Cup before the Student Leaders showed him over the gymnasium.

Ruby Scott-Smith and a team of Food and Hospitality students supported by their teachers Trina Smith and Sharon Osborne served the Prime Minister and the Students Leaders lunch based on their award winning dishes. Mr Key took the opportunity to chat to the Leaders about the school and their future plans.

As part of the Health curriculum the Year 9 students have the opportunity to attend a "values and strengths based show, which builds students up in who they are and how they treat others. Supporting schools and students dealing with bullying, self esteem, attitude, respect and more..."

The cost is $3, please bring this in on Monday morning.
