Twenty five students contested the Public Speaking Championships at College on Tuesday night. Topics ranged widely but the environment and social issues were very popular. The judges report that the standard was very high and the competition tough, especially at Year 13.

| Year 9 | Kayla Neems | "Celebrity influences"
(xxxx judge) |
| Year 11 | Fred Scahill | "My perceptions of Kaipara College" |
| Year 10 | Samantha Millar | "Animal cruelty" |
| Year 12 | Salote King | "Obesity" |
| Year 13 | Courtney Grundy | "Overcoming adversity" |

Congratulations!

Music Awards

Throughout the night the contribution and achievements of the music students were recognised by their peers with certificates and awards.

There was a mix of music on display as Year 13 celebrated the end of the music year at College with a stylish awards evening at College last night. Some of the RockQuest bands played and the song writers showed why we were School of the Year again.

Inzone Careers Bus Visit

One hundred and sixty seven students watched 483 career videos between them in this state of the art mobile careers expo which visited the College yesterday. InZone documentaries showcasing industries, educational institutions and entrepreneurial New Zealanders have brought career information to more than 40,000 New Zealand students.

This was its last visit. The information is now available via our own Inzone Career kiosk, kindly funded by the Kumeu Rotary Club. It provides students with the opportunity to make informed and practical decisions on their career options. Students interested in any particular career video can then decide if they would like to receive further information on that career. An automated mailing function is available which promptly responds to a student's request getting the information directly to them.
