Musicians in Europe

Thirteen students accompanied by four College staff spent the holidays in Europe on a musical tour that started in the sixteenth century in Vienna and ended in the twentieth century in London.

In between there was a Mozart concert in the castle on the hill in Salzburg and the recreation of a scene from the "Sound of Music". In Munich there was a side trip to Dachau and an oompah band. The night train delivered them to Paris where they paid their respects to Jim Morrison and were seduced by the Seine at night. The Channel tunnel decanted them into Kings Cross, London, where they attended the Queen show "We Will Rock You" and visited the interactive British Music Experience. "How was the food?"

"Food? Just fuel! The days were full and the music and scenery super cool."

The group had a very knowledgeable guide who added to their enjoyment.

The conclusion: Great trip! We're off again in two years time!

Open Night was very Successful

A large number of prospective students and parents visited the College last night to learn about our programmes, look over the school and see student work. Enrolment is next week. The times are on the right.

Visitors from Japan

Fifteen students from Semboku High School in Osaka, Japan, are visiting the College on a two week cultural tour. They are accompanied by their English teacher, Yumiko Kawano. They spend mornings at College improving their English and attending some College classes with their Kaipara buddies. Afternoons are for visits. So far they have been to Muriwai, Orewa and Warkworth and visited a farm. Yesterday they spent the morning on the low ropes course meeting team building challenges. They are enjoying staying with New Zealand families and experiencing the Kiwi way of life.
