Whakamana Taiohi Maori Awards

Whakamana Taiohi Maori was a senior Maori student assembly held on Tuesday this week. Whanau Atawhai with support from its sponsors produced the event and assembled the award certificates and prizes. College Kaumatua Richard Nahi and liaison worker Wiki Ratima joined members of Whanau Atawhai to present the awards which acknowledged the successes achieved in academic, sporting, cultural and community fields by students of Maori descent.

Whai Mana Awards went to:

Tori Crosby, Duke Hemana, Malachai Humphris, Jordan Makara, Shaun Stead-Hill, Jade Wahanui, Kothau Esau, Anthony Bunge, Danielle Huddleston, Gjertine Larsen-Marsters, Blaizia Larsen-Martin, Jordyn Stead-Hill, Luke Williams, Michael Wilson, Jacob Lawes, Deylani Richards, Billy May, Te Reo Paraone, Blair Smith, Sarah King, Taryn Stead-Hill and Madeline Shelling.

Whare Nikau Award: Taryn Stead-Hill

Mauri Ora Award: Madeline Shelling

Taumata Awards are made to the high achieving Maori students in the school:

Renee Beazley, Leonie Masters, Daryl Moore, Toree Osborne, Alexandra Renall, Kareem Richards and Alias Walker.

Te Atawhaitia is the Award for the student who best upholds Te Ao Maori at Year 13. This year's winner was Alias Walker.
