Musos in the Town Hall

It was a special night for some of our top musicians in the Town Hall Concert Chamber last Friday Night. The chamber was packed for the Mike Chunn organised "Band of Strangers" concert.

Auckland secondary musicians got to play with Smash Proof and with the lead singer from The Feelers.

The ten musicians from Kaipara had their own 15 minute spot. They earned this as the top New Zealand School in last year's "Play it Strange" song writing contest. The four songs that College students had in the top twenty were performed by the band of ten. Most of them had not played in front of such a large audience so it was a big occasion for them and they loved it. The feeling flowed through the music and the audience gave them a great reception.

The Band of Ten is: Ellie David, Sean McGregor, Jay Owen, Charlotte Silverstone, Charlie David, Mitchell Ihle, Ben Williams, Avalon Hewitt, Shelley Scott and Reuben Wilkinson.

Congratulations!

It has been Enrolment Week

The younger sister of Head Girl Ellie David enrolls to start College next year. Jess David and her mother Sue came in for their enrolment interview this morning.

Enrolment week has seen a steady procession of Year 8 students enrolling for next year. Enrolments continue on Saturday. Students still to enrol can phone the College for an appointment by ringing the school office on (09) 420 8640.

Netballers on the Gold Coast

The Kaipara U16 Netball team returned from the Gold Coast Netball Carnival having come 7th out of 22 teams in the Intermediate section of the tournament. This tight team had a wonderful time playing four days of netball and spending two days relaxing in the Gold Coast parks. They stayed on the 21st floor of an apartment building with a stunning view of the coast.

The netball started very well with ten straight wins before a day at Dreamworld broke the concentration and they struggled to get it back losing the next four games by close margins. Must have been the Tower of Terror!

Still the netball was great, the shopping excellent, especially Pacific Fair, and the food was fine. At Dracula's the Kiwis were rarked up for being the only people silly enough to be swimming in winter. The trip finished with a great dinner and dance at Movieworld. Three staff and twelve players all arrived home tired and flu free. A great trip all round!

The team was: Madeline Shelling, Kothar Esau, Tina Paulsen, Charlotte Goodwin, Aylah Olsen, Keisha Bradley, Salote King, Sarah King, Jamie Masters, Ashley Flood, Deylani Richards and Kim Waters. Staff that worked hard to organise the trip and accompany the team were: Lynn Goodwin, Marie Paulsen and Marcia Ohlsen. Well down, team!
